

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

As God's own people, let us be merciful in action, kindly in heart, humble in mind. Let us be always ready to forgive as freely as God has forgiven us. And, above all else, let us love and never forget to be thankful for what Christ has done for us. For as far as the east is from the west so far has God removed our sins. We are forgiven!

* CALL TO WORSHIP

We were strangers in a strange land.

We learned to sing and to give God praise.

We were strangers to God.

The prophets guided us and we returned from exile with singing.

God came to us as a stranger,

and taught us to love others as we are loved,
and to offer welcome as we have been welcomed.

We are all welcomed in the hospitality of the Lord,
to worship the Lord our God.

Lord open our hearts that we might experience your generosity afresh!

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Great God, you welcome strangers and you welcome each of us to be your children and be your disciples. Help us to be brave disciples so that we may serve Jesus Christ and welcome others. Forgive us when we pass by the lonely, the hungry, the thirsty, the tired, and the discouraged. Forgive us when we fail to see the image of you in the faces of those we encounter each day. Lord, deliver us from living artificial lives to authentic life in Christ. Guide us to extend the hospitality and the welcome that we have received through Jesus Christ our Savior, Amen.
