

Story of Faith    by Bill Cobham

Dear Family and friends' it would take years for me to tell you of my stories of faith. I will attempt to tell you just a few. Last year around Christmas time I was again in the hospital. I felt terrible that I would not be able to play my Christmas Solo with Lady Alice. We have been playing since 2008 every Christmas Eve. Christmas Eve will always be special for me because of my Father's Birthday. I prayed and asked for a Christmas Miracle. Sure enough, the Lord made a way for me to get out of a hospital bed and get to FPC to play "He Shall Feed His Flock" by GF Handel. I could not perform this solo this year because of being in the hospital again. But today another Christmas Miracle came down to me. Praise God I am home and feeling better. I thought I would have to drive all the way up to the top end to meet with my Surgeon. I just received a call from his office. Now we can have a virtual meeting this morning. This has never happened in the history of kaiser! I will keep you all posted on the meeting. Thank you all for your continued prayers.

Yours in Christ,

Bill Cobham
