LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLES

Rod and Phyllis Pruner

The season of Advent continues. We join with a hopeful throng in the lighting of the Advent candles, symbols of our faith and signs of God's love.

We are people of hope. Hope lives and abounds in us.

Today we light the candle of peace.

This light must brave the darkness.

In an age when people seldom find peace within themselves, and when all the earth stands under threat of war, we light a fire called peace.

Peace that is not merely the absence of conflict but peace that is the fullness of blessing for all, that is the peace for which we dare to hope.

Christ comes to bring peace to those who have been separated from God and one another.

In the name of that Child born so long ago, we light the candle of peace.

May this candle of peace give light to the world.

I now light the candle of peace.

Let us pray: Almighty God, prepare our hearts, that the dear Christ may enter in and be born in us. Grant us his peace which passes our understanding; for we pray in your name. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of grace, we confess that we often are deaf to the good tidings around us. We are weighed down by the pace and the demands of the season. Help us to reflect on your great love in the gift of Jesus to this weary world, and to us; for we pray in Jesus' holy name.

(silence for personal prayer and reflection)

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

ST. LOUIS

Hymn 121, stanza 3

How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heaven. No ear may hear his coming, but in this world of sin, where meek souls will receive him, still the dear Christ enters in.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

ANTIOCH

Hymn 134, stanza 3

No more let sins and sorrows grow, nor thorns infest the ground; he comes to make his blessings flow far as the curse is found, far as the curse is found, far as, far as the curse is found.

THE PASSING OF THE PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

John 1:6-13

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of human will, but of God.
