

Joy to the World

This year my favorite Christmas carol is “Joy to the World.” In fact, I have read and/or sung the words to this Christmas carol every single day of 2019, since the plaque in the photograph below rests on the ledge directly in front of my kitchen sink, a permanent adornment there. This beautifully crafted plaque was given to me by Jean Elder at the annual Ambassador Choir/Silver Saints Christmas Party in 2019 in the FPC Fellowship Hall. This plaque reminds me that at the time of Jesus’ miraculous Incarnation on that first Christmas night in Bethlehem so long ago, God’s Love came down from Heaven to earth to bring us joy every day, regardless of our circumstances!
