

People Look East

I learned to love Advent music even more than Christmas music when I came to First Presbyterian Church, Covington. People, Look East is my favorite Advent hymn because it includes the spirit of a Christmas carol with Advent text. Singing this carol reminds us to prepare our homes and hearts for the coming of the Christ Child.

By Perri Walden