

The First Nowell

I remember holding my precious Matthew when he was 6 months old while singing "The First Noel" and tears were streaming down my face. I was thinking about how much I love this baby boy and how much Mary must have loved her precious baby boy Jesus.

Feeling the call to motherhood as Mary must have felt was overwhelming. What great joy this child would bring to our family and what joy our Savior Jesus would bring to the world.

By Darcel Tabb